Report description:

Home furnishings continued to record strong current value growth in Germany in 2021, driven by continued social distancing measures, which encouraged consumers to focus more on enhancing their inner spaces. With children also studying from home on a more regular basis, demand for indoor furniture further grew in 2021. This included children's furniture, which experienced a spike in sales as parents converted children's bedrooms into nurseries and classrooms, purchasing bookshelves and desks. Thi...
