Report description:

Egypt witnessed a decline in the retail volume sales of wireless speakers in 2021 as shipment delays, increased shipment costs, and increased raw materials costs led to higher retail prices, putting off less affluent consumers. In addition, new regulatory legislations introduced stated that imported electronics with Bluetooth technology must be presented to the National Telecom Authority for issuing permission before release from customs. This legislation delayed imports and imposed an extra cos...

KEY DATA FINDINGS

2022 DEVELOPMENTS

Wireless speakers are extending their sales volume decline as legislation impacts imports and product prices

JBL is the leading brand in wireless speakers whilst "others" shrinks under impact of new legislation

E-commerce is gaining share though appliances and electronics specialists remain the preferred channel

PROSPECTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

Strong positive prospects from wireless speakers thanks to their connectivity and convenience

Younger generations to return to using wireless speakers outside of the home

Increasing use of smartphones and wireless speakers will result in further declines for portable media players; e-readers will remain a niche category
