Report description:

A few years ago in Lithuania, cocktails were not of a high quality (containing dyes and various additives) and were considered economy-class drinks. Gradually, the quality of the cocktails has improved, and recently, in order to maintain interest, a lot of new product development is appearing in the RTDs category every year, attracting the attention of consumers. Also, cocktails sold in shot portions have appeared in the country and have become very popular. Despite these positive developments,...
