Report description:

The COVID-19 pandemic and measures introduced to halt the spread of the virus benefited savoury snacks in 2020 as there was more scope for consumers to work and study from home. Savoury snacks became more of an everyday luxury, rather than a traditional weekend (save for savoury biscuits) consumption option. Generally consumers spent less on services and were able to spend more on everyday 'luxuries' such as savoury snacks for indulgence/pampering to help cope with the stress and uncertainty of...
