Report description:

The snacks category is witnessing another prosperous year in 2022 as Uzbekistan moves back to business-as-usual mode. With pandemic restrictions finally lifted and consumers fully regaining their professional and social life, impulse purchases and on-the-go consumption can fully resume. Simultaneously, snacks is seeing a surge in price inflation, exacerbated by the rising costs of raw materials, logistics and supply problems related to the war in Ukraine. Whilst the majority of players tried to...
