Report description:

Lager is the dominant category within beer in Estonia, although there is a growing interest in craft beer. During 2020, many consumers preferred to stockpile lager as it is usually the cheapest type of beer and is often packaged in cans which are easier to store than bottles. With many consumers becoming more price-conscious they were less willing to experiment with expensive varieties of beer. As the COVID-19 situation gradually improved during the course of 2021 thanks to the easing of restric...
