Report description:

The pandemic had a marginally negative impact on demand for depilatories in 2020, with lockdowns and home seclusion limiting time socialising with others, participating in sport or visiting a swimming pool. Therefore, local consumers did not see the necessity for regular hair removal which was evident in declining value and volume sales. However, in line with greater mobility outside of the home as Switzerland rolled out its vaccination campaign over 2021, consumers started to gradually socialis...
