Report description:

Both retail volume and retail constant value sales (2022 prices) of fine wines/champagne and spirits continued to expand throughout the review period in spite of the pandemic. Luxury spirits dominate this category, with brandy particularly popular, as wines of any sort are not widely consumed in Taiwan - there is no tradition of doing so and most local consumers remain unfamiliar with wine. Local consumers are generally much more knowledgeable when it comes to spirits. However, both retail volum...
