Report description:

Streaming services, subscription video on-demand (VoD), and games consoles are becoming too strong for BD and DVD players to compete with. Netflix and Amazon Prime, for example, offer a vast multitude of films and programmes without the need to own a physical player, whilst games consoles are increasingly able to play DVD and Blu-ray discs, making a separate purchase of a BD or DVD player unnecessary. Moreover, streaming services offer a parental control option that allows parents to select only...
