Report description:

Recent years have been something of a rollercoaster for demand for premium and luxury cars in Romania. While retail constant value sales exhibited a double-digit decline during 2020, they rebounded strongly during the following year - rising above their pre-pandemic level. However, they declined once again during 2022. A shortage of vehicles due to global supply-chain issues played a role in this, as did mounting inflationary pressure, which led some middle-class consumers to postpone big-ticket...
