Report description:

In 2021, the retail volume growth rate for savoury snacks is expected to drop slightly but to remain positive. This is due to the fact that retail volume growth spiked in 2020 as consumers spent more time at home and were more likely to consume savoury snacks products. Whilst in home seclusion, consumers were more likely to spend time watching television programmes or movies and there was also a significant increase in the number of consumers playing computer games in 2020, and many of these act...
