Report description:

In 2022, chocolate confectionery overall is recording both volume and current value growth. However, growth in value is much higher than growth in volume thanks to significantly increased unit prices as a result of raised production costs, and price hikes in raw materials, packaging and transportation. Chocolate pouches and bags, followed by boxed assortments and countlines, leads in current value growth. Rises in volume continue, nonetheless, as Bulgarian consumers are keen to return to life ou...
