Report description:

After seeing dynamic retail volume and current value growth during the COVID-19 pandemic and ensuing lockdowns, savoury snacks is set to decline in retail volume terms in 2022. This will be due to the lifting of pandemic-related restrictions and the end of home seclusion, which will lead to lower at-home consumption, as well as a rebound in foodservice, which will lead to lower sales in retail. The category is set to see an increase in sales in current value terms, however, due to rising prices.
