Report description:

Adult and paediatric motion sickness remedies witnessed dynamic value sales growth in 2022 as travel restrictions were fully removed and foreign travellers returned to the country. The local population also started traveling again to relatives and families in distant corners of the country as well as neighbouring countries. This had a positive impact on demand for motion sickness remedies, which had fallen dramatically in 2020 at the height of the COVID-19 pandemic. However, thanks to an easing...
