Report description:

Flatulence and constipation are among the most common digestive complaints of Poles. It is estimated that as many as seven-in-ten women, and only slightly fewer men, suffer from such ailments. The COVID-19 pandemic has only made the situation worse, as consumers have further neglected to take care of proper eating habits and have reduced average physical activity, both of which contribute to the less frequent occurrence of digestive problems. The problem is growing, hence the apparent increase i...
