Report description:

While paediatric consumer health is expected to register an increase in current value sales, constant value sales are expected to fall in 2022. Rising inflation as a result of the energy crisis stemming from the war in Ukraine is pushing up retail prices and dampening volume sales somewhat. Digestive remedies are expected to register the highest current value growth. A falling birth rate is also dampening volume sales. Analgesics continues to account for the majority of value sales, with the onl...
