Report description:

Local public service campaigns extolling the multiple benefits of vitamin C, including immune-boosting properties, continue to drive up demand in Singapore, leading to a marginal rise in the average unit price in 2021. Although vitamin C is unlikely to revisit the impressive double-digit retail volume growth recorded in 2020 following the emergence of the pandemic, demand continues to rise above the average rate for single vitamins in 2022 as many local consumers perceive this as a pantry staple...
