Report description:

Baby food sales have been struggling since the pandemic started in 2020. Milk formula accounts for most sales of baby food in the Kingdom but with mothers were staying at home more due to COVID-19 this has increased their chances to breastfeed their infants, especially working moms, and thus the demand for milk formula has dropped sharply. The government has also been making efforts to raise awareness of the importance of breastfeeding, especially for new mothers, and it has been supporting this...
