Report description:

After skyrocketing over the second half of 2021, retail unit prices for butter have continued to increase sharply in 2022 due to rising raw milk prices and an overall spike in production costs. With high inflation fuelled by the global recovery from the pandemic and the wider geopolitical fallout of Russia's invasion of Ukraine also driving up the general cost of living in Slovakia, increased budget-consciousness has prompted many households to reduce their consumption of butter, either by purch...
