Report description:

Overall, butter and spreads are expected to register an increase in current value sales and a slight increase in volume sales. High inflation caused by in particular increased energy prices due to the war in Ukraine is having a knock-on effect on food prices and is dampening volume sales. Butter, the largest product area in terms of value sales, fares best, with higher volume growth than for margarine, while cooking fats sees volume decline. Due to significant price increases in butter, consumer...
