Report description:

Thailand is fully reopened and welcoming fully vaccinated tourists from across the world. The country allowed arrivals with a negative pre-departure PCR test to enter from 1 April, with the full reopening of its border from July. Tourism, as well as the Thai economy, on which it exerts a strong influence, is expected to continue to show signs of recovery with increasing numbers of arrivals in line with the easing of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) situation and related restrictions. Butter and spread...
