Report description:

Butter and spreads is not expected to perform strongly in retail volume terms in 2022, while retail current value sales growth will primarily be driven by price rises. Butter is expected to be the strongest performer. It benefitted from a surge in baking during the lockdown period of the pandemic, and while this boost is expected to continue in 2022, it will diminish as more consumers return to the workplace. Margarine and spreads is expected to be the poorest performer. Cooking fats is expected...
