Report description:

Cheese registered positive volume growth in 2022 as demand continued to increase despite negative population growth narrowing the consumer base. One reason for the rising consumer interest in cheese is that these products are seen as an economical and nutritious source of protein, while younger consumers in particular are increasingly interested in a wider range of cheese. In addition, value growth continue to increase in constant 2022 terms during the year and this can be seen as a reflection 0...
