Report description:

Cheese is expected to register healthy current value growth, though volume growth will be significantly lower. Inflation is rising as the war in Ukraine pushes up fuel prices and continuing global food shortages also drive up prices. This is expected to dampen volume demand. Lower-income buyers continue to consume unpackaged fresh cheese (usually unbranded), which is often a basic staple in most independent grocers across the country, where pricing and availability keep playing key roles. Mid-in...
