Report description:

Cheese is expected to register double-digit value growth and much moderate volume growth. Inflation is rising as the war in Ukraine pushes up fuel prices and continuing global food shortages also drive-up prices. This is expected to dampen volume demand. In addition, imported brands suffer, as currency devaluation and increased administrative costs associated with importing pushes up prices. Lower-income buyers continue to consume unpackaged fresh cheese (usually unbranded), which is often a bas...
