Report description:

In spite of rising oil prices due to the war Ukraine, Nigeria is not benefitting as much as it could as output is low due to infrastructure deficiencies. Therefore, the economy is being negatively impacted by soaring global gas and food prices. The naira has also devalued, making many imports even more expensive and also making it difficult for local companies to access foreign exchange to buy materials. All in all, this is expected to mean an overall bleak performance for cheese. Packaged cheeses...
