Report description:

Lactose-free varieties and plant-based alternatives have gained popularity at the expense of standard cheese in Slovakia in 2022. While this is partly due to the well-established tendency towards rising health awareness among the population, many consumers have also become more willing to try these product types as inflationary pressures have driven up the cost of standard cheese, narrowing the price gap with lactose-free and plant-based options. Interest in plant-based cheese has been further s...
