Report description:

Cheese is a staple food in Slovenia which accounts for significant value sales. Overall, cheese is expected to register an increase in current value sales and a slight increase in volume sales. High inflation caused by in particular increased energy prices due to the war in Ukraine is having a knock-on effect on food prices and is dampening volume sales. Due to significant price increases, consumers trade down to cheaper brands, in particular private label, and players also offer discounts. While...
