Report description:

Unit prices across dairy products and alternatives in Slovakia have increased sharply in 2022 due to inflationary pressures fuelled by the global recovery from COVID-19 and the wider geopolitical fallout of Russia's invasion of Ukraine. As a result, while growth in total current value sales is set to be substantially higher than in 2021, overall retail volume sales are projected to decline for a second consecutive year. Demand at the retail level has been further subdued by the fact that most pe...
