Report description:

Raw milk prices spiked considerably in 2022 due to the escalating prices of animal food as the country's inflation rate climbed to 57% and reached a 20-year high in 2022. Animal feed is mostly imported and so the increase in foreign exchange prices put upward pressure on prices. Turkey has already been going through a high inflation phase, but with the extra increase in the costs of animal food, energy, wages, logistics and packaging, prices of dairy products have risen ahead of the inflation ra...
