Report description:

The government has eased Coronavirus (COVID-19) restrictions while implementing country-reopening schemes. The relaxation of COVID-19 restrictions and move towards normality is leading to higher domestic consumption of drinking milk products in 2022, following two years of strong overall decline. However, retail volume and current value sales are not expected to return to their 2019 levels by the end of the review period. Nonetheless, the return to pre-pandemic lifestyles, with the working hours...
