Report description:

Many products in the other dairy, especially dairy desserts and quark, are typical impulse products which tend to benefit from consumers being out and about and thus being tempted on the spur of the moment. This means that other dairy should be benefitting from consumers' out-of-home lifestyles following the event of the pandemic and associated restrictions. However, as seen in other dairy categories, other dairy has been affected by the resumption of cross-border trade and travel, meaning in-co...
