Report description:

Yoghurt and sour milk products registered positive retail volume growth and solid current value growth in 2022 as consumer demand remained stable despite high inflation and pressure on house or incomes. Rising unit prices due to highest inflation experienced in Europe in decades, itself due to the Russia-Ukraine conflict and a strong recovery in consumer spending in the post-COVID-19 era, boosted value growth rates, with the category registering a strong performance over the course of the year a...
