Report description:

As at-home cooking has become the new normal post-pandemic, Australians have been experimenting with their cooking out of necessity as well as a means of reconnecting with family. This is expected to remain a long-term trend as consumer habits have shifted. While retail volume sales of cream, like butter and cheese, are set to marginally decline in 2022 as pent-up demand drives a marginal shift back to foodservice, overall retail demand remains above pre-pandemic levels and is likely to remain r...
