Report description:

While sports nutrition is the smallest product area in terms of value sales within consumer health, it is an emerging product, with high growth potential. In 2022, in spite of soaring inflation as a result of the war in Ukraine, which is causing a lot of economic uncertainty, sport nutrition is expected to register double-digit constant value growth. Gyms are open once again after the pandemic lockdowns and people are looking to be more active and lead a healthier lifestyle.

Euromonitor International's Sports Nutrition in Azerbaijan report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data 2017-2021, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. Forecasts to 2026 illustrate how the market is set to change.
