Asia-Pacific Foodservice Market Summary, Competitive Analysis and Forecast, 2017-2026

Summary

Foodservice in Asia-Pacific industry profile provides top-line qualitative and quantitative summary information including: market size (value 2017-21, and forecast to 2026). The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

Key Highlights

- Foodservice is defined as the value of all food and drink, including on-trade drinks not drunk with food, for immediate consumption on the premises or in designated eating areas shared with other foodservice operators, or in the case of takeaway transactions, freshly prepared food for immediate consumption. Foodservice is restricted to the sale of food and drink in specific foodservice channels defined below and excludes vending machines.
- The Asia-Pacific foodservice industry had total revenues of $1,240.7 billion in 2021, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of -0.7% between 2016 and 2021.
- Industry consumption volumes declined with a CAGR of -0.5% between 2016 and 2021, to reach a total of 325.9 billion transactions in 2021.
- China is by far the largest foodservice industry in the Asia-Pacific region, due to its huge population and burgeoning middle class, which have driven demand for foodservices and made it an attractive destination for global brands.
