Report description:

Though Israel has seen no lockdowns since March 2021, the country remained closed to inbound travel for most of that year. Locals who travelled abroad had to quarantine upon return and related rules and regulations were subject to continuous change with little warning. Quarantine for the unvaccinated ranged from 7-14 days, and for the vaccinated depended on the results of PCR test. In 2022, when Israel opened up its borders to vaccinated and unvaccinated tourists alike, air arrivals and air outb...
