Report description:

Deodorants continued to be considered an essential category by many consumers towards the end of the review period. Therefore, retail volume sales were maintained in 2020, and registered strong growth in 2021. As consumers resumed to work, school and social norms, returning to the workplace, classroom and social settings, the use of deodorants increased in frequency. All significant categories saw fast growth in demand in 2021 as economic conditions improved and consumers started spending more t...
