Report description:

In 2022, dietary supplements will continue its upwards trend after a disruption in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic and the economic repercussions it had for many consumers. The growth trend established during the review period is driven by increasing awareness of dietary supplements and their benefits in Georgia. In addition, the category is making larger and faster growth than vitamins, driven by combination dietary supplements (many of which contain vitamin ingredients) and probiotic supplement...
