Report description:

Herbal/traditional products is registering moderate retail value sales growth in 2022 due to more products becoming available in this category. Furthermore, herbal/traditional products are continuing to gain acceptance and attract new consumers, with media releases from 2020 and during the pandemic having a lasting impact and serving as free marketing and an extra driver of consumption. Stockpiling in 2020 meant Finns were amply stocked for a while, causing demand to decelerate in 2021. Addition...
