Report description:

While herbal/traditional products are expected to register an increase in current value sales, constant value sales are expected to fall in 2022. Rising inflation as a result of the energy crisis stemming from the war in Ukraine is pushing up retail prices and dampening volume sales somewhat. In addition, as fears around COVID-19 abate, this is also leading to less demand for herbal/traditional products, as consumers were taking such products to boost their immune system etc. All the same, herba...
