Report description:

At the end of the review period, home audio and cinema suffered further drops in demand for specific audio devices as music consumption continued to shift to laptops, smartphones and wireless speakers. In-home consumer electronics experienced some positive impulses during lockdown and home seclusion in light of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) crisis. Stay-at-home lifestyles, including distance learning, remote working and few occasions for out-of-home socialisation or leisure, as the government intro...
