Report description:

In 2020, sleep aids registered a significant increase in retail value sales as the stress caused by the fear of COVID-19 led to a surge in people finding it difficult to sleep and as a result, purchased sleep aids. However, the fear has abated, and people have learnt to live with the coronavirus in 2022. As a result, current retail value sales growth of sleep aids is decelerating and is lower than in 2020 and 2021. Nevertheless, many Finns live stressful lives and increased availability is boost...
