Report description:

In 2022, many residents of the United Arab Emirates have taken trips back to their home countries, trips that were put on hold due to the pandemic. Indeed, the vast majority of the country's private sector (up to 98% in Dubai) is composed of foreigners. It is common amongst many multinational companies for employees to be given a round trip flight home once a year as part of their employment compensation package. In 2022, this is set to result in outbound travel growth significantly outpacing in...
