Report description:

2022 sees travel in Malaysia on track to recovery as the country transitions to the endemic phase of the coronavirus. In April 2022, it fully reopened its borders and a month later allowed tourists to enter with no need to show proof of COVID-19 tests. As such, international visitors have begun to return to Malaysia, and around the first week of May near half a million people entered Malaysia from Singapore through the countries' newly-opened land borders.

Euromonitor International's Travel in Malaysia report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest market size data 2017-2021, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. It identifies the leading companies and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new legislative, technology or pricing issues. Background information on disposable income, annual leave and holiday taking habits is also included. Forecasts to 2026 illustrate how the market is set to change.
