Report description:

Slovak travel faces another wave of challenges after two years of suffering during the COVID-19 pandemic. All categories began 2022 in an upbeat mode with good prospects for a relatively rapid rebound thanks to high vaccination rates and the removal of pandemic-related restrictions. However, inflation, staff shortages and low demand from high-net-worth travellers have put a dampener on recovery - though it continues. These factors were in place before the war in Ukraine broke out, which is now a...
