Report description:

Demand for vitamins supporting the immune system are losing traction in 2022 with vitamin C seeing current value sales normalise after two years of double-digit growth. However, multivitamins are holding ground with the number of product ranges greatly increased in the country since the COVID-19 pandemic. Brand Benet is widely stocked in supermarkets, convenience stores, Price Smart, hypermarkets offering multivitamins and minerals for kids and adults, as well as vitamin C and zinc for kids and...
