Report description:

Consumer credit is being driven by increasing consumer expenditure in 2022 following the easing of pandemic-related restrictions. This is leading to the resumption of socialising, and the return of more normal shopping and travel habits. On the other hand, the war in Ukraine is leading to high inflation and strong price increases, especially for essentials such as energy and groceries in Austria. This scenario is forcing local consumers to be more careful with their expenditure and make more pru...
