Report description:

Consumer lending in Italy registered positive, yet slower growth in 2022, as ongoing economic uncertainty in the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic led many consumers to remain cautious about making any large purchases. Factors such as high inflation rates, increasing ECB interest rates, high energy prices, and worries of a potential recession served to erode consumer confidence, as well as disposable incomes. On the other hand, reduced disposable incomes led some consumers to pay for items on c...
