Report description:

Slow growth is expected in both the outstanding balance and gross lending in consumer lending in 2022, with increases for both consumer credit and mortgages. Following the prolonged impact of COVID-19 and the resultant financial struggles some people are facing in Japan, various relief measures and support systems have been implemented which make it easier for people to obtain loans. For instance, the government made revisions in order to make it easier for more people to obtain education loans,...
